Morning Cathedral
watercolour by Josy Hilkes Britton

Last year Josy's painting, Pinery Tulips, won the Wittnauer Award (for a first time Open Water participant). This year Morning Cathedral was accepted to be part of the Exhibition.

The Canadian Society of Painters in Water Colour was founded in 1925 out of the commitment to watercolour of twelve influential artists, including Fred Brigden and Group of Seven members Franklin Carmichael and A. J. Casson. For the last 80 years, the Society has had a mandate to encourage and nurture watercolour excellence.
